What ?

A 5-session module, 2 hours each, on the theme of Cabaret, covering the art of soft striptease, dance, costume handling, and an introduction to stage makeup. Open to anyone (18+) with a passion for Music Hall, with or without prior experience. Animated by Christophe Mergan.

But here's more...

Cabaret is a unique art form born from the grand Parisian venues (Moulin Rouge, Crazy Horse, etc.), American musicals, burlesque, and striptease.

Cabaret classes are open to everyone and all levels — no prerequisites. The aim is to have fun, dance, and express yourself to catchy, upbeat music.

Explore your body, celebrate femininity (or masculinity), with the help of props (chairs, fans, boas, etc.) in a warm and supportive atmosphere.

After a warm-up, we'll dive into choreography, posture, stage presence, theatrical play, expressions, and emotions. Far from vulgarity, the goal is to embrace your sensuality and boost your self-confidence.

Unleash your personality by embodying bold, charming characters.

When ?

The 4 Thursdays of March 2026 from 19h30 to 21h30 + Saturday March 28th from 16h30 to 18h30.

Your work will be presented at the Free Podium event, that night (Sat. March 28th at 20h).

How much ?

175€ (for 5 sessions of 2h + free participation at the "Free Podium" event).
